The War on Terror

For thousands of years there has been a terrorist war on the people of God and most ignore it or do not even know it is happening.

Satan has been terrorising the people of God (a terrorist is one who terrorises) and the church has been blinded to it so that its people are destroyed or crippled and no one does much about it or knows how to handle these terrorists.

Jesus warned us about them and gave us authority over them to remove their works and to stop them even doing them but few know how to do this (Mark 16:17-18).

Until Christians take this war of terror seriously they will not do the work of God as He wants it done, or be able to be used by Him to expand The Kingdom of God. They will sit in or out of churches feeling useless or as if they could do more than they are doing.

If you are not involved in this war of terror then you are a probably a victim of it and need to regain the ground you have lost before God can use you as He desires too.

What are you willing to give up to stop this terrorist hurting you or others and to limit and even prevent his attacks on people (such as your children and spouse and yourself).

The Kingdom is at stake and whether you battle is up to you. But know this. There are no rewards for those that do not battle.

Satan is a defeated Enemy

He was made captive at Calvary (Eph. 4:8). He had held the world Captive, had been defeated at Calvary and was now a prisoner. He was publicly humiliated by Jesus and it was shown for all to see that He had been defeated and was now a captive (Col. 2:15).

Satan is a prisoner who has escaped his prison and is unlawfully roaming the world as it belongs to Jesus and who has not been given permission to leave his prison. So in the delegated authority of Jesus you have been given he can be sent back to Jesus to be judged and punished for what he has done:

Leaving the prison

Attacking people

Opposing Jesus in all he does on earth

He has no right to attack or use people but is able to replace demons that are removed from them if the person does not want to repent. The Holy Spirit is not asked to take the place of the demons that have left so seven more worse one can come in.

He can be sent back for breaking God's Laws and escaping regardless of what 'right' he claims over a person as he is a prisoner and prisoners have no rights to leave the prison and attack people on earth who now belong to Jesus and it is for this you cast him out and send him back to be judged by Jesus and as he has been defeated he has to go and be judged. You do not even need to attack his hold on the person as that is irrelevant for the purpose of him being an escaped prisoner.

When you punish Satan command him to experience what he place on people until he is cast into the lake of fire. This is easy once you remember what he does to people in hell, how he tortures them when he does not have to. Remember also how he has hurt you, your family and billions who have lived and are living. He is not a nice demon.

This is war and there are no prisoners and no compassion shown to our enemy as they show none to us.

You are either involved in this war, learning about it or resting from it, otherwise you are helping Satan, not obeying Jesus and risk losing your salvation, unless you do not know about this war as the church you are in has not told you about it or your part in it.

The Silent War

Overview

There is a war in progress on earth at the moment. It is between the rulers of The Kingdom of God and The Kingdom of Satan. The prize is the eternal soul of every person who has lived, is living or is going to live. The enemy is cunning and has managed to make his presence irrelevant or immaterial to his opposition and has been able to convince others to follow him as their leader in this world.

Both leaders are playing for the same pool of souls so the fighting is deadly and earnest.

An overview of the two forces is as follows:

Commander-in-Chief	Jesus	Satan
Base of operations	The Kingdom of God	Hell
Battlefield of the	Earth	Earth

combatants
Guide of the combatants	Holy Spirit	Demon Guides
Combatants	People in a right relationship with God	People deceived by Satan to follow him and his evil ways, whom he uses for his purposes, often without their knowledge.
Angels	Good angels: Ministers to God and combatants	Demons (fallen angels) who serve Satan and seek to destroy, possess or capture the eternal soul of combatants and ministers to the combatants with the purposes of snaring them for their kingdom.
Prison of combatants	None (God frees people from Satan's prison)	Their minds and the webs of deceit Satan weaves around them.
Prison of angels and demons (fallen angels)	None (Good angels cannot be bound by Satan's demons but they can be hindered)	Tartarus (The place demons are sent to by combatants to await the last days of earth) There are other places but Tartarus is the one in the Bible (2 Pet 2:4). Hell is not there prison but by them)	Tartarus is.

Motivation of the combatants to serve	Love for their leader, Furtherance of The Kingdom of God and the freeing of souls from the enemy	Fear, power, sensual pleasure, possessions, increased worldly authority
Prayer	Made to God and answered by God	Made to Satan, often needing ritual or sacrifice as part of the ceremony. Answered by demons. (Demons make the people believe they are controlled by the ritual but really use it to control the people themselves)
Obedience to Commander	Out of love and gratitude	Out of fear and forced submission
Things promoted by the armies	God and His Things	Satan and his things
Rewards on earth	More spiritual authority, more intimacy with the commander	More more demonic authority. More control and pleasure

Eternal rewards	Eternal life in heaven, mansion in heaven	Eternal death in hell, eternal pain and torment
Jesus	Lord of all	He is their sworn enemy they must obey Him though as well as obey a citizen of The Kingdom of God correctly using the authority of Jesus delegated to them
Results a of successful Battle	Combatant matures, Kingdom of Heaven expanded, souls freed from the control of the enemy.	Combatant becomes more depraved and deceived. Kingdom of heaven diminished, souls enslaved in The Kingdom of darkness.

This war is conducted in the spiritual realm by God, His Angels, Satan and his demons (fallen angels) using spiritual weapons and combatants controlled on earth by God (Through The Holy Spirit) and Satan (through His demons). The effects may be observed in the physical as sickness (mental, physical, and emotional) and demonic possession as well as supernatural manifestations by the representatives of both leaders and at times by the leaders themselves.

Some of God's weapons are His truth, the delegated authority of Jesus, His Love and Character expressed in and through us, The Holy Spirit to guide us, prayer and what happened at Calvary and its flow-on effects. Satan can only deceive or distract us and this is the basis of all he does. He causes us to take our focus off Jesus and His Things so we fix our eyes on our problems and become bound by them. He can only deceive us about the things of God or distract us from them if we let him.

The real battle is between the spiritual forces. The combatants are used to carry out the commands of God and Satan. Anyone not fighting the battle with spiritual weapons has lost before they even begin to fight.

The weapons of Warfare

2 Cor 10:4-5 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

Weapon	How God uses	How Satan uses
Truth	The truths of God set you free from the lies of the enemy and the bondages he tries to put on you through these lies.	Misuses the Truths of God or twists them to make people accept his way of doing things. Misquotes or alters the Bible so people do not know the truths that will set them free.

Delegated authority of Jesus	Used to remove the enemy demons as well as any damage they have done to a combatant and replacing the area of influence of these demons with that of The Kingdom of God.	Demons must convince people to accept their authority by getting people to accept what they tell them as being true. Their combatants curse people to get demons to do their work (but really the demons appear to obey them for the purposes of controlling the combatant).
God's Love and Character in us (Gal 5:22,23)	Integrity of a follower of Jesus enables them to stand in the battle and attract people by their life-style.	Satan tries to replace this with his standards and as people accept these they degenerate in character and become more evil and mentally unstable.
The Guides in the battle	The Holy Spirit's guidance advises us in this war for the purposes of the Will of the commander, Jesus	Demons advise for their own purposes as well as the purposes of their commander Satan.
Prayer	Jesus answers according to	Satan evaluates as to whether it is according to His Will or Purposes and thus The Purposes of The Kingdom of God .	whether it will benefit his purposes and further his desire for control and power.

Praise	God uses it to keep His combatant focused and demons hate it as it disturbs their concentration and peace in the battle with God.	Uses praise to himself to encourage his own force
Armour of a Christian	Based on the relationship with God, is foundational to that relationship and reinforces this relationship	Is the antithesis of all this enemy commander tries to achieve
Calvary	Jesus, by His death, defeated Satan there and removed the barriers between God and man. Satan was made a prisoner there so can be sent back to Jesus to be made captive again.	Satan tries to convince people this event never occurred and if it did is of no effect or consequence against him and his demons. This was their greatest defeat that transcends all of eternity.

What is our protection in this war ?

Our relationship to our Commander-in-Chief as totally committed follower of His protects us and Satan cannot attack us without the consent of Jesus and must try and make us accept something of his so he can try and control us more successfully. If Jesus is Lord of our life then nothing Satan offers us can tempt us to rebel against Jesus and follow Satan in the area he is tempting us in.

It is this position as a fully committed citizen of The Kingdom of God that enables Jesus to protect us. Anything that Jesus is not Lord of Satan can attack, but only in the guidelines Jesus allows him to (1 Cor 10:13). Satan is allowed to attack us for the purposes of our correction or maturity.

The objectives of each side

The objective of each side is to have combatants from the other side join them. God does this with the purpose of freeing them from the influence and control of His enemy so that these people will be with Him in eternity enjoying the joys and pleasures He has for them. Satan seeks to snare people from God's beneficial purposes to his own purposes seeking to increase his power and area of influence in the world so he can come as the 'saviour' of the world in place of Jesus and rule it openly rather than in secret as he tries to do now. He also seeks to take as many as he can with him to the lake of fire and to the eternal torment that is there. Whatever side people are on Satan's ultimate aim is to destroy them.

Methods of attack

The combatants of God use the truths of God to show the errors and lies of their enemy. The combatants of Satan use lies and deceit to try and prove God's truths are not accurate and that the lies of Satan are more correct and believable. His demons also try and distract people from the battle so that these people are not in the battle but elsewhere doing things that are irrelevant to the purposes of The Kingdom and while they do not belong to Satan's army they are not causing him any problems.

If you are not where God wants you to be and you do this deliberately then you are in disobedience to Jesus and you are helping Satan in the battle. Jesus allows this activity in the wrong place if you are not wilfully disobedient and tries to guide you to where you should be but what you are doing is not His Perfect Will and may actually help His enemy (Rom 8:28 still applies). God can still use what you do but not as effectively if you were doing what He really desired you to do.

The combatants of God serve out of love for God and others while those of Satan serve out of fear or the advantage they will obtain success from the battle.

The Basic Structure of the armies

The structure of God's army is very flat. God is on top and directs his angels. The Holy Spirit in God's combatants personally directs them. There is only one layer of control between God (Jesus through The Holy Spirit) and his soldiers. Satan's structure is hierarchical as each demon tries to maintain or increase their authority and power. Satan is on top. Under him are his princes and the unholy trinity (Jezebel, Antichrist and Death and Hades). Under them are the rulers over nations and then the territorial spirits. Below them are the lower ranks of demons that do the actual work of deception and distraction and possession of people.

As the structure of God is flat (there are no people interposed between He and his combatants) the combatants can directly hear Him through The Holy Spirit in them. They do not need anyone else to tell them what to do or interpret for them the instructions of God, only someone at times to witness to the correctness of what they heard.

Perhaps the greatest lie of Satan is that we cannot hear God as He is supposedly not a personal God and we need 'approved' or 'anointed' people to tell us what to do and interpret the things of God. Prophets, pastors, ministers, apostles, priests etc are necessary Satan tells you so you know what to do or believe. This means many people do not relate to God because they believe they are not qualified to hear or know God as they should so they go through an intermediary to hear what God has to say to and do not try to listen themselves. It also implies because an intermediary 'hears' God they must be obeyed. This is in contrast to God's desire for you to personally relate and dialogue with The Holy Spirit.

Because the combatants fighting for God all are one level under God, there is no rank of importance, only maturity and responsibility. All are equal in this body of combatants. All have direct access to God and the moment one interpose themselves between God and a combatant there is a defeat of this purpose of this flat structure.

Satan deceives people to believe that they need a hierarchical structure as we have in churches and that the hearing or relating to The Holy Spirit is not necessary so people walk in darkness using reason and man's methods to guide them because they do not try and hear the instructions of The Holy Spirit. Thus they are not where God wants them in the battle and Satan sits back and laughs at the confusion and weak attempts that are consequently made to defeat him.

The Battlefield

While the actual battlefield is the mind of the combatants, the arena it is played out in is the earth. At the moment Satan controls the earth and the immediate heavens around it so he has the advantage of territory and thus has set up structures on the earth to reinforce his values and assist his side of the battle. He uses these structures to try and limit the effectiveness of his enemy and to keep as many people in bondage and servitude to him as he can. Cults, religions, New Age, Satanism, science, evolution, theosophy and philosophy and similar are all structures used by Satan to keep people bound.

Jesus is the Victor

Jesus is greater than Satan so His combatants should never lose a personal battle with the enemy. If they do it is possible one or more of the following reasons apply.

They need deliverance

They do not know how to fight properly because they do not know how to use their weapons properly

They accept the lies of the enemy as if it was the truth

They are not listening to The Holy Spirit so they are not where they should be or not doing what they should be doing so can be attacked by Satan.

Jesus is not their Lord and they only give Him lip service

They want what Satan offers more than what God offers them.

Attitudes to the war

Satan hides or plays down the seriousness of this war so people will not realize how important it really is and so will not get involved with it. He also makes it appear difficult or requiring specialist training or spirituality to become involved so people are afraid to fight his demons. This way he removes many from the battle who would fight him if they knew how easy it was to do so.

If people knew how easy it was to defeat Satan and the effects of his kingdom he would be rendered ineffective in many parts of the world and would lose the battle there.

He seeks to destroy or control all he can and does so without mercy or pity on any who get in his road.

In contrast Jesus weeps over the enemy combatants and shows them Mercy upon Mercy in the hope they will turn to Him. Unlike Satan He deals with them out of His Love for them and not out of the desire to control or use them for His selfish purposes.

Satan knows the attitude Jesus has to his (Satan's) combatants so hides the Love and Mercy of God from them and tries to minimise its understanding in the combatants of his enemy, Jesus. He also tries to block the Holy Spirit from being heard by them so they will not get the guidance or understanding they need to defeat him or be where God wants them to be.

He also places fear on people to hide God's Love, control them or make them afraid to fight him as well as placing confusion on them so they do not understand what is going on. If these fail he tries to distract them so they either believe something incorrectly that renders them harmless to him or useful for him, or divert them to activities that are Godly in themselves but do not cause him problems in this battle.

These end up doing what is second best, as they do not realise the importance of the fight or do not consider it important as they believe Satan cannot attack because they belong to Jesus and do not realise that is the reason Satan attacks them. It is their indifference, ignorance or complacency about The Kingdom of God and the battle they are in that gives Satan the opportunity to attack them.

Comments on the War in General

Satan and his demons cannot read the mind of the enemy combatants but from 6000 years of observing them they have a good idea of what they are thinking and how to pervert them. Satan also seems to have a rough idea of what God has planned for each combatant and seeks to stop them from achieving this any way he can.

At times he will try and provide his answer first before God does so he can mislead or destroy the combatant with his deception.

It is fortunate God limits what Satan can do to His people so that Satan can never test God's people beyond their limit and thus their ability to endure (1 Cor 10:13). Satan has to convince the enemy combatants they are not strong enough to defeat him and that it is a lie that God limits his power over them if he wants to successfully defeat them.

God is honest in all He does but Satan is not. Satan does “not play fair!” But then, what else can you expect from someone whose purpose is to destroy you now and cause you to go to eternal torment in eternity after you die.

The followers of Satan do not realize his reign is only temporary and soon he will be totally defeated when Jesus returns to claim the earth He has won from Satan as a result of Calvary. This return of Jesus is what the combatants of God pray for so that the war will be over and there will be peace and order again on earth under the reign of Jesus. They constantly cry out for Jesus to return, restore The Kingdom of God on it and heal the earth and all on it!

There are no fence sitters in this war. You are either fighting for God, learning how to fight or live, teaching how to fight the war, resting or by your inactivity helping Satan. If you do not fight for God without a good reason for doing so you are helping His enemy, even if only by inactivity in the battle. The followers of God, who show indifference or ignorance to the war are really helping His enemy and may themselves not be even be a follower of God as they are not fighting for the things of God as a follower of God should.

In a master stroke of planning Satan had managed to divide the combatants of God into factions (denominations e.g.), each claiming to correctly interpret the guidelines and plans of God, each being too busy to preserve their own faction to fight Satan. By this Satan has made impressive gains. He has managed to get the rule book (Bible) of God’s combatants interpreted in such a way that each faction can justify their existence from it so that no faction will admit they are wrong.

He also has managed to get this rule book rewritten in such a way that it no longer threatens him as well as making many important doctrines of God more difficult to prove and has even been able to remove things completely from this book so that the faith of many are shipwrecked as they read a watered down rule book that cannot convince them that certain long held beliefs are true because they cannot be proven conclusively from this “more approved modern version” of the rule book (The Bible).

What is worse is that these ‘improved scholarly versions’ can be used in parts by Satan’s followers for their own worship. He also has adapted words that are important to God for his own use and redefined them so they apply to him and the spiritual structure he has set up. He has his own ‘unholy spirit’ and unholy trinity (Death and Hades, Jezebel and Anti-Christ) as well as his own messiah that will come and supposedly give the world ‘peace’. Satan is a copier and not a creator so has to copy the things of God.

Through all this copying he confuses things and thus holds his people and his combatants in subjection. They believe it is truth as it has the semblance of godliness but it is error, being only a satanic parody of the truth. The combatants of God have the truth but few speak it out to the those on Satan’s side.

One day the battle will end and all will give an account of how they followed Jesus and fought in it. Many will be surprised to find they are not followers of Jesus, having ignored the battle and ignored the things He wanted them to do (Titus 3:5). They were too busy doing what the world said was right or the faction said was right to actually do what He wanted them to do.

Others will find that Satan was a liar and by following him they rejected all the good things that God had in store for them if they had followed Him instead of Satan. Others will find rewards beyond imagination as they see their efforts in the war were not in vain.

Until that day of judgment the secret war will continue as the eternal salvation of many souls are fought for by a few of God’s people who fight this good fight out of love and thanksgiving for God and His things and whose desire is to see God’s Kingdom come to earth, people freed from Satan and his control as well as healed of the damage Satan did to them.

The Hiding of The Kingdom

One of the master strokes of Satan was to hide from Christians what it meant to be a citizen of a kingdom and to serve a king who has the absolute power kings possessed in the time of Jesus.

Satan did this by turning kingdoms into democracies, reducing the power of remaining kings to basically that of a national figurehead and by ensuring that people made the borders for countries so that the realisation that his was the only kingdom on earth was hidden. This was because man made national boundaries, or biblical one (Israel), were no longer seen as God-given but became the right of those who inhabited a land, conquered it or made the biggest claim over it.

Hence people do not understand what it is to serve and represent a king or belong to a kingdom where the king has absolute power (controls all they have including life and death).

The church needs to once again regain this fear of God as King with power of eternal life and eternal death over them as well as complete control over all they do or own before it will function as it should. The church needs to learn to Love Jesus as its King, protector, provider, planner and rewarder before it can serve Him as it should.

It is amazing how pastors claim absolute power over a church but ignore their obligation to Jesus and His Authority over them. Christianity is not a democracy. God does not give us decision making power over the affairs of The Kingdom, only in the way we decide to react to what He asks us to do for Him and His Kingdom.

Jesus said that it was His church and He would build it. Our role then is not to decide what a church should do but to listen to Jesus and wait for Him to tell us what He wants done in it and when and how He wants it done.

For too long people have not listened to Jesus and used reason which is why the churches are in such a mess, not preaching The Gospel of The Kingdom and ineffective for the purposes of Jesus.

People need to see the spiritual perspective in all things so their perspectives is on what is happening spiritually (what God wants) and not just what is happening in the physical (what man reasons should occur).

When we appreciate Jesus as King over The Kingdom we belong to then we will serve Him as we should, putting His Will first, His Kingdom first and His purposes for us before all other purposes.

The Hiding of the truths of The bible

Satan has corrupted the Bible through the use of Gnostic Greek source documents and modern critical techniques which makes what man says about how a bible verse should be translated more important than what God says how it is translated. By this he has compromised or hidden many truths of the Bible resulting in a watered-down faith or errors in faith. The evidence is there if you seek it and if you desire to seek it God will lead you to it (Jn7:17).

Satan's areas of attack

If you were Satan and had the limited resources he does, where would you place your demonised and possessed people and demons. I suggest the following are prime areas for him to control for his forces to maximise their corruption of people and Christians:

All levels of all types of government and their services: federal, state, local etc.

Legal areas: Judiciary, lawyers, court systems, government enforcement at any level.

Public service, social services, charities and similar

Media: Television, radio, cinema, newspapers, books, comics, Internet, computer games

Health care: hospitals, clinics and similar, medicine, medical bodies (policy making especially)

Education: policy, curriculum, methods of education

Money: Banks (Reserve and normal), lending institutions (loans to other countries, housing loans etc).

Military, paramilitary organisations

Police and other law enforcement bodies

Science (evolution and other popular anti-God theories)

Theological colleges and seminaries: promote liberalism, error

Religious leaders

Churches, denominations, parachurch organisations

This he has done successfully.

How to counteract this situation?

It is so far-gone Jesus will need to do it in the tribulation as well as when he returns

Our part in this is to obey God's instructions or we will hinder His preparations for this' At the moment He is preparing and placing His people strategically then He will start the disasters to remove Satan's infrastructure.

Satan and His One World Religion Smoke Screen

To set up his one world religion Satan needs to hide or remove The Kingdom of God and its citizens from his kingdom as they restrain his work and reveal the errors of his one world religious system. Satan is unsuccessful in this when Jesus removes His citizens when it is time to do so, leaving behind the lukewarm ones who declared they were His but did not do His work. Satan also has to destroy the foundations of Christianity so that he can draw people away from the truth.

He has tried to do the following:

Removed The Lordship of Jesus as the focus of most people in the world including many Christians.

Attacked the divine nature of Jesus or reduced Jesus to the level of a New age ascended master (so that The Cross is not effective in regards to redemption and salvation. He tries to convince you that salvation requires effort on your part and that you must work all the time at pleasing God to keep your salvation.

The virgin birth of Jesus has been attacked by liberal theologians so that it appears He is not the incarnation of God

Water down the importance of The Cross (made it irrelevant to many or misunderstood by them as to its actual application and implications.)

Tried to destroy the inerrancy (complete accuracy) of The Bible (Liberal theologians are supposed to have provided a more 'modern and accurate' Greek text that destroys or makes it hard to prove some important doctrines of the Bible. This apostate Greek text is the basis of all modern bibles).

Hell is no longer relevant (They argue God is Love and would not create Hell or the devil. No Hell, no punishment, no devil).

Wrong appreciation or understanding of salvation and its aftermath so that errors like the belief that you are 'once saved always saved' removes the need for obedience and the risk of losing salvation.

Authority lines are blurred or confused. (Jesus becomes a figurehead and the pastor or minister is more important in the denominational scheme of things. The denomination becomes more important than The Kingdom of God).

Wrong theology is taught in regard to spiritual warfare (so Christians do not correctly know their authority over demons and so fear them or fight them incorrectly).

Wrong emphasis on parts of The Bible so cults or sects are formed or aspects of faith wrongly are overemphasised and given disproportionate importance (such as speaking in tongues).

Ecumenecism between liberal theologians and other religions such as Hinduism and Buddhism so that 'Christians' need to compromise their 'faith' and belief system to 'fellowship' with other religions.

Made himself irrelevant (Satan cannot attack a Christian they say) or made people not believe in him so they do not concern themselves with him.

Desensitised people to their need of salvation and the church to the need of proclaiming Jesus and the salvation He offers.

Blinded the church to its need to demonstrate The Kingdom of God either as healing the body, deliverance (healing the soul) or demonstration of its Gifts to people.

Made knowledge more important than having a relationship with Jesus and The Father hiding the fact that salvation is a relationship with The Father and Jesus and not just knowing about them.

Have man add to the requirements of salvation so salvation is faith plus works (such as Baptism in the spirit required as part of the evidence of salvation) and by this removing the uniqueness and adequacy of Jesus to be able to do to be able to redeem us.

Hide God's Grace, Mercy and Love so that people live in fear, self-condemnation and guilt.

Set up a language only churchgoers understand so non-Christians will not be able to relate to it or understand Christian concepts like salvation and Lordship.

Modernise church and its services so it is little different (in the eyes of non-Christians) to a rock concert or social event and also made preaching acceptable so that people will leave there without any conviction on anything except they had a good time there.

Make reason more important than faith so that so called Bible 'myths', like creation, the fall and The Incarnation, do not have to be believed undermining the Bible and its credibility and reducing the character and attributes of God by implying He is not all powerful so is not able to create all or incarnate Jesus. These people imply that Bible is not correct as they say it has myths so it cannot be believed except in the parts they say it is believable in.

The problem then is to know what parts of it you can believe. So in effect you can no longer use the bible as you do not really know what is supposed myth, man's reasonings or from God.

This means that you cannot really know what salvation is as you cannot say with certainty that the parts of the bible that talk about salvation are accurate. If God lied in Genesis where else has he lied and why should he not also lie in the New Testament where we are told what salvation is. Or if God could not control the writing of what He wanted to say to man then you do not know what other parts of the Bible He was not able to control the writing of.

Belief in The Bible is all or nothing. There can be no in between stance.

Convince women to follow beauty and not maturity or holiness and by this have them follow Satan's worldly values and by this also be able to manipulate them

As a result of Satan's work, the world is one gigantic Satanic smoke screen to hide the truths of God and corrupt Christians assisted by a theology based on tradition and reason and not What the Bible says. It is also a giant stage used to desensitise people to spiritual things by clouding their mind with earthly, carnal things so that things like war, murder, petty crime are no longer affecting people and they grow lukewarm to God's attitudes to these things allowing Satan to bring in his regime of brutality without people really noticing he is doing this.

The truth alone, as interpreted by The Holy Ghost will set you free from this smoke screen and keep you free. "As many as are led by the Spirit of God these are the Sons of God" because they walk led The Spirit and do God's Will in all things. So Satan is not able to deceive them.

Satan has managed to stop churches teaching people how to walk in The Spirit and commune with The Holy Spirit on a second by second basis. This is perhaps one of his greatest victories as not knowing how dialogue with the Holy Spirit keeps people captive to the smoke screen and stops them fighting Satan as God desires them too.

You need to learn the signs of the smokes screen so you will not be snared by the wiles of the devil.

Satan's Conditioning of the World System

Do Christians realize how Satan has conditioned the world through the media especially Television and the movies? Most do not. If they do they ignore it. He has made fun of godly things: Who God is, His servants, angels, demons, hell, life after death, people dying and coming back as angels or helpers, All wrong! But all designed to make us take lightly the things of God or even ridicule them and by this he has turned many away from seriously thinking about the things of God. After all, how serious can it be if it is funny or a joke.

He also has desensitized people to sex outside of marriage, pornography, witch craft, new age values, war and violence by making these commonplace so they are taken for granted and not given a second thought or even considered to be out of the ordinary. So people accept these things as being normal and expected in daily life.

He has managed to have children raised on a diet of these by having television show these in a way that is acceptable, usually through cartoons. By this he places his teachings in their subconscious mind, crowding out and even displacing the Truths of Jesus. Compare how many hours children watch new age type things on television compared to how many hours they read the bible and pray.

So Christians watch all Satan's desensitizing material and accept it as normal and wonder why they no longer feel God's displeasure at these things or live a holy life, separated from Satan and all he promotes.

How did this corruption occur in the western world?

Before movies, television and radio, Satan used a class of people who were influential, leaders of society, prided themselves on their abilities to reason and did not have sufficient faith to accept the Bible as being from God and completely accurate in all it said. Satan guided them to reject the Bible in parts where it seemed unreasonable to accept it: Creation in six days, The fall of Adam, The Incarnation and Virgin Birth were major areas and through their rejection of this and their pride in their reasoning abilities Satan was also able to have evolution accepted and the scientific side of the Bible rejected.

If there was no six day creation then evolution is reasonable, the God of the Bible is not all powerful and we do not have to have Jesus as the fall never occurred so Jesus no longer becomes a saviour messiah but another holy man to follow. The Bible must have lied about these things so you cannot believe what it says about salvation or that it is God's revealed truths for us to live by.

With this acceptance of evolution Satan caused doubt in many about the accuracy of the Bible so many had problems reconciling The creation history, Biblical History and science, especially evolution.

With Cinema and television Satan gradually changed what society tolerated using the lusts of writers and audience as well as the pride of directors and writers being the first with something daring such as swearing and nudity. He used their satisfaction of this pride to be the first to do something daring to keep the momentum of this descent into immorality until morals were raped and sanity or reason was no longer a consideration. So they ended up always trying to find something new or novel regardless of the cost to children or God's morality.

The church did little to stop these new things. Satan was able to put more and more ungodly things into movies, DVD's and television so that within a lifetime of seventy years he has corrupted and desensitized a whole society. The Western Society.

Some churches tried to stem the tide of filth but Satan had managed to divide the church so few were involved in this resistance and those that were, were usually isolated from the others trying to stem the tide .

The church thought its influence was too strong to worry about these original immoral few movies or television shows and too holy to get involved in media or governments.

Now Satan is strong enough To force churches to accept his values through legislation. God is slowly being legislated out of education, the military, the government and public places.

Now television, DVD's and movies subtly promote Satan's agenda and the church sits by and even watches these shows and enjoys them. Christians are so desensitized to the things off Satan they are no longer offended by them. Many do not classify things as ungodly any more, only as worth watching or not worth watching they have been so conditioned by Satan.

They gladly watch and laugh at things that compromise their Soul. Being classified as art, fantasy, science fiction or comedy seems to make the ungodly acceptable. Christians do not realise ungodly input is ungodly input in whatever form it is input into them.

What makes things worse is that Satan keeps building on what he has set up and the church does little to stop it. As the church declines Satan's area of influence increases.

What is tolerated now would have put you in prison 70 years ago. In one life-time Satan has corrupted society and badly compromised the western church which sleeps and seems oblivious to what Satan is doing.

Jesus has to deal with the church, He has to tear it out of the world and purge the world out of it. The sooner you start this process in your own life the less painful it will be later.

Don't rely on your church as the responsibility is yours and no one else. With the abundance of Bibles and Bible study materials there is no excuse.

Your spirit like your body, needs to be fed to grow, It will grow according to the type of conscious or subliminal inputs you allow to enter you. This is why it is important to guard what you watch in DVD's, television, movies or Internet.

The soul is where demons try and influence your inputs. The Holy Spirit influences you in your spirit. As you allow more of Satan's world system in you through indifference to what you watch on television, DVD's or movies you give Satan more ammunition to use against you.

Be careful what you watch, Satan may one day use it to cause you to sin or worse, compromise your faith in Jesus and His salvation.

Attacks on the Bible

Satan has provided many alternatives to the Bible that are more interesting and exciting to read that the Bible is so that people are drawn to these and read them rather than the Bible. As a result the Bible is not read in a family group by many people and its influence has accordingly waned in the home and been taken over by other media.

If I was Satan how would I subvert Christianity?

Jesus

Evidence for the Historical Jesus

(If Jesus never existed or was not born of a virgin the Christianity has no reason to exist)

I would try to remove every historical reference to Jesus, His Teachings and would stop people listening to The Holy Spirit by cluttering their minds as He provides the information to believe in a historical Jesus. If I could not do this I would manipulate the historical accounts of Jesus to show that He was just another holy man and not someone special.

I would promote the thought that Jesus is an irrelevant figure, historical but irrelevant to make him to be someone who had no bearing on life today. Or I would make him out to be merely a teacher, a 'master', human, but who had ascended into his true purpose/existence, by his own efforts, thereby being a 'pattern' for mankind in the most liberal sense.

I would promote a Go-between Jesus and mankind

I would promote the idea of an intermediary between God and man so that the spiritual senses are never developed or matured fully. These intermediaries would be people the church promoted as being spiritual and necessary for you to seek God's Will and teachings or to approach God for you. By this people would be made to rely on these intermediaries (priests, ministers, prophets and similar) and not learn to hear The Holy Spirit and what God wanted them to actually do.

I would make these intermediaries so spiritual that the ordinary person would not think this state was easy to obtain except through works, fasting or special anointing and that it was not for normal Christians to be like this.

The Bible

Attacks on God in the Media (Especially in comedy)

I would humanize God, Angels, Satan, and Demons to make them little different in character to humans

I would portray Christians as being little different to non-Christians or as extreme; narrow, bigoted, living a life that is not as enjoyable as the life I offer the world.

I would portray ministers and Christians as hypocrite, saying they serve God but live a life that is hypocritical doing things God does not approve of.

I would make the Christian lifestyle of holiness and fasting (abstaining from what the world I am in control of) look ridiculous and farcical.

I would portray heaven and hell as mythological and makes them to be like earthly kingdoms.

I would hide the lifestyle in heaven by humanizing so it is like the lifestyle on earth and nothing really different to really make it worth striving to get into. All the promises there I would try and hide by the way I promotes heaven. Hell I would show as not being a place of torment and even a 'fun place' to strive to get into.

In Cartoons I would attack the gullible acceptance of Children using pantheism, witches, magic, super heroes, ignoring the True God replacing him with new age or mythological gods.

Meanwhile parents let their Children grow up watching these things on television and wonder why their children grow up and join the New Age, or are rebellious and ungodly.

Satan has used the proliferation of media to remove the Bible and its truths from the home.

In the old days The Bible was usually the only book a house had and people were raised on it and taught to read from it. But with the development of the printing press then television computers and now the Internet, Bible reading is no longer of interest as what Satan has provided in these media is more exciting and enjoyable as an entertainment.

People look for pleasure and enjoyment now and usually are not interested in the discipline of the Christian life. Christians have abused Grace and ignore what needs to be pursued to follow Christ so now people do not seem to need that lifestyle of God's Grace as few promote it any more.

By swamping us with alternatives to The Bible Satan has dulled the work of The Bible in us and allowed him to promote his things so that these now proliferate and Christians accept them and wonder why the world is becoming more pagan and satanic.

We need to read the Bible every day, study it and meditate on it constantly so God can use it to guide us and mature us and teach us.

Its truths

I would twist the meaning of the scripture or make its meaning ambiguous and thus uncertain and imply it was the writings of man and not God through man.

I would infiltrate the places where Christian ministers and teachers are taught as well as Christian places of management and leadership. I would cause the truth to be hidden by gradually changing it throughout the centuries so that what is taught is of tradition or is reasoned or logical truth and not Truth as taught by The Holy Spirit. Thus I would guide these ministers and leaders to think as I want them too so that a lifeless and powerless Christian faith would be taught and led by them.

I would not hide the truths of the Bible but would have them explained incorrectly or not fully so that the full realization of what God meant was not known and people would not be set free by the principles of Jesus in The Bible as they would not have the complete truth as explained in The Bible.

Anyone who spoke out against the 'established' ways of interpreting The Bible or 'the things of God' would be ridiculed and driven out of the church in the way I thought was most appropriate. I would also cause those who know the truth to leave churches out of dissatisfaction because they felt the church they were in was not meeting their needs for spiritual growth.

I would use this dissatisfaction with the churches to make those that left spiritually proud, considering that they had the truth while the churches only had error.

I would also cause them to criticise the church they were in and desire to go elsewhere so they would never settle for long in one church or if they did their experience would be unsatisfactory so they would eventually leave and become isolated from other Christians, ineffective and disillusioned. I would use this where possible to form new denominations or splinter groups so that they were too busy justifying their stance to do the work of Jesus.

I would ensure that training of a minister is interpreted to be of the mind (reason) rather than of the heart/nature/character/spirit.

I would methodically interweave the lie with the Truth intricately and in order to promote the belief that the Cross is not necessary (and avoidable) in order to be a disciple. I would water down the meaning of this word - "Christian." It would be taken to mean someone who is a 'good person' and does community works and that anyone who has a belief in a 'higher power'.

I would cause pastors and congregations to think they were special using names like: THE house of prayer, THE worship centre, etc., implying they were the only real one of that type. Thorough this I would raise pride in them and cause them to look down on other churches.

Inerrancy

I would make the credibility of the Bible to be doubted and its inerrancy (that it is without error because it is inspired by God) to be discredited. This would allow people to interpret it more in the way I wanted it to be interpreted so that I could guide it to be a book used by all faiths. This version of the bible would then become the basis for a one-world religion that shows a Messiah with whom all religions and faiths can identify, including the New Age people.

I would make certain they would see this messiah in the Bible and not Jesus. While everyone worshipped a messiah it would not be the true one, Jesus. To enable this I would replace the names of Jesus with new age type names (master, the one etc.).

Theology

I would make the pursuit of knowledge about God more important than relating to Him. I would make theologians extremely important so people followed their teachings and did not pursue the relational side of Christianity which is the basis of eternal life but promote the obtaining knowledge about The Bible and God as more important than the relationship with each member of the Trinity.

I would make their interpretation of The Bible more important than God's ability to maintain it accurately through the centuries so that theologians could be used to corrupt the Bible through their interpretation of it being important because they declared God's was not able to preserve it so they had to reinterpret it again to find what was originally said. By this I would bring my heresies into the Christian belief system and water it down so it no longer posed a threat to me.

Calvary

I would Minimize or hide its truths

I would try and hide Calvary and its effects any way I could or mythologise it so people could make it mean what they wanted it too. If I could not do this I would minimize the effectiveness of the Cross. I would make it barely relevant and concentrate on what people did to obtain salvation trying to convert salvation from faith in Jesus to faith in Calvary plus works and thus make it difficult to be saved without ritual or sacrifice.

I would make it an Idol

I would make people worship the act of Calvary instead of Jesus and give it power or ability that was not there, like: salvation, healing and a status that was greater than what it should have. I would try and replace Jesus and his salvation with Calvary and hide the fact that Calvary does not save but only redeem them.

Gospel

I would use worldly ways of promoting the Gospel which negates its power.

I would make salvation to mean a one-time prayer rather than a relationship.

I would hide the Gospel of The Kingdom so the church would appear no different to any other social club or body so it did not do the work of Jesus to show His Glory and Majesty and by this show his reality.

I would hide the manifestation of The kingdom of God so people would not see anything to make the church desirable or different to what they were doing already.

I would spiritualize, make irrelevant or hide the important teachings of Jesus, heaven and hell so that there was no urgency to get out the Gospel message.

I would add works to salvation to hide the truths and simplicity of it or make the explanation of the gospel complicated so people would have trouble understanding it.

Holy Spirit

His Leading and Guidance

I would then replace the guidance of The Holy Spirit. I would teach He was impersonal and so not directly approachable or not able to be heard (so that He would be ignored) then replace this with reasoned theology and man's ways of making decisions. In this way I could guide man's reason in the direction I choose so that I would rationalize or intellectualize church and spiritual matters to be what I wanted them to be and not as The Holy Spirit would tell them to do.

Reason would be the basis for determining church matters rather than hearing and discerning The Holy Spirit's direction. Thus the church would be spiritually leaderless and powerless, led by man's reason and become irrelevant to most those outside it and would be looked upon as being no different to any other organization or social club. It would lose its distinctiveness.

I would be able to influence its decisions as to what Jesus said. Jesus would not be referred to except as His principles are explained in the way I caused people to interpret the Bible. This insures that The Holy Spirit becomes largely irrelevant and not a vital part of a believer's life. They would not become a 'son of God' and do the work of Jesus.

I cannot stress how important it is for me (Satan) to stop people having a personal relationship with The Holy Spirit as well as stopping them being in constant dialogue with Jesus and He. That is why I have churches no longer teach a personal Holy Spirit or how to talk, hear or dialogue with Him on a regular basis.

I would exalt guidance by theologians over that of the Holy Spirit. I would make theologians who reasoned out things the interpreters of the Bible and not men led by The Holy Spirit, the official interpreter of mine enemy.

I Would remove the guidance of The Holy Spirit in regard to what to preach by having a liturgical calendar for ministers to follow as well as prepared sermons they could use if there was not time to prepare one. I would also have them do exegesis rather than teach the understanding of a passage in a practical way they could apply to their life. Thus preaching would not meet the need of the church but would be done to satisfy the denominational requirements.

Churches

Structure

I would cause people to criticise the church and its errors rather than forgiving the people in it who hurt them and interceding for them. This criticism would also serve to distract them from their original purpose. By having them focus on the established church and on how to reform it, I would get them side-tracked away from what God really wanted them to do which is to go out and reach those not of my) flock(followers of Jesus and remove them from my kingdom to His

I would form denominations and church into factions so that unity was something that was agreed on by necessity and not through the oneness they have in The Holy Spirit. It would be a conciliatory agreement necessary for the preservation of the organization rather than through oneness they have through the Holy Spirit.

I would hide the fact that Jesus does not recognise denominations. He only recognises His Body (people He is lord of).

I would emphasize the inequality between people so they would feel inferior and inadequate to serve God or feel superior and have pride and seek the best position. By this I would hide the equality all have in Jesus and the need for a servant heart amongst the leaders.

I would hide the fact that ministry is service and not control and those leading spiritually are not to administer the church but to wait on mine enemy The Holy Spirit to tell the church what Jesus wants it to do.

I would make success in churches measured by numbers, giving to them wealth, influence and success in business-type structures and not by Miracles and Converts, so that the world's values were used to measure success and not God's values. Any minister or worshiper who knew the error of these would be removed by the leaders I control or influence. I would even infiltrate it with my worshipers (Satanist's) to appear innocent but do as much damage and dissension to the order in a church.

I would cultivate the cult of people and raise these people up as supernatural heroes so that no matter what error they promoted people would be blind to it and not question anything they do because of the idolatry they had in regard to these people. I would prosper these leaders materially and apparently supernaturally so all would look up to them and desire to be like them, supernaturally gifted and wealthy. They would have large business-like organizations and be known nationally and internationally.

Anyone questioning these 'super spiritual' people would be persecuted and cast out, belittled and have their faith and credibility questioned because they stood against one of these leaders and their activities. Such would be the worship people had of these leaders that no one would question these activities.

I would make church services ritualistic, legalistic and boring because of denominational rules and an over emphasis on the need for order in a service or by using incompetent preachers who have a licence to preach but not the calling of Jesus to preach. I would place as many of these un-called people in church positions so that those who are called cannot take their rightful place. Because these 'called' people are not qualified as the church requires it they are not listened to and are dismissed as they are not 'suitably trained' to comment on the things of God.

I would have a culture in the church with its own language that would make it irrelevant to those not raised in a church. There would be programs to change this culture, all designed by man and there would be some change, but usually the denomination would limit it or the church would leave the denomination to go further in these changes. Denominations would even seem to approve these changes, but only after making sure they were for the benefit of the people in the denomination and satisfied the beliefs of the denomination.

I would hide the fact that repentance and obedience to the Kingdom of God was required and not programs that made people feel good but achieved nothing spiritually.

People outside the church would not be able to relate to this culture if they had not been raised in the church and I would promote a language not used in normal daily life that outsiders could not relate too. I would also have ritual that would mean nothing to those not raised in a church. There would be no demonstration of the signs and wonders of The Kingdom of God. I would not have nothing in a church that would make it attractive to the unsaved outside.

I would set up and teach leadership in the church using the hierarchical model patterned after the world, so that servant hood (servant/leaders) is not understood at all.

Preaching

Preaching and teaching would be according to what man reasoned was necessary and not according to what The Holy Spirit said was necessary. He would not usually be consulted as to what to preach or teach and if He was I would have established protocols for this and beliefs to make The Holy Spirit appear hard to hear and obey. If they believed in hearing The Holy Spirit, I would try to make them hear incorrectly or fear they were hearing wrongly so that there would be caution as to what they said He had told them.

If there was any truth I would try to distort it. make it appear irrelevant or complicate so it was not easily understood. If they had the truth I would try to use reason and doubt to move them from this truth to error. If they did not have the truth I would hide it or distract them from it. Thus I would guide the church into being irrelevant or in error and not doing the work of mine enemy.

I would Ridicule religion and demean God

I would turn religion into a comedy. Make ministers and Christians out to be ridiculous people who sin and love worldly pleasures and do things that worldly people do. But make it funny so it is acceptable as 'comedy'.

I would make them out to be unspiritual or super spiritual so that they could not be related too by non-Christians and appear to serve no earthly or spiritual purpose and really are not worth respecting or following. But once again it must be 'comedy' to be acceptable.

I would make the devil to be like a person so the supernatural side of him and the evil that goes with following him is hidden. Once again 'comedy' makes this acceptable.

I would make super human people who are like gods so the real God is hidden or removed in the mind of a child or toddler so they and older children in a fantasy world and God is crowded out of their minds by this.

I would make God to be a funny old man in heaven or harsh, legalistic and/or unforgiving or make him out to be like every other mythological 'god'

I would make religion not a way of life but something to be laughed at or mocked through 'comedies' about it and things in it that are shown to be ridiculous and laughable to everyday people.

In other words humanize God, the devil and angels and make religion out to be something that is no different to worldly life or is so far removed from reality no one wants to live it. Or show it as strict and unpleasurable in its lifestyle and not enjoyable so that it is not to be desired.

Fellowship

I would make church a place to socialise and not a place to fellowship and encouraging each one as the Bible says they should. The experience in church would be shallow so that people could go out unchallenged in their so-called Christian walk. It would be like a formal social club so that activities of the world could take place as 'outreach' type events and everyone would think it was a wonderful event and that they were doing something for Jesus when really they were usually only playing games.

I would make fellowship like joining a club. All the fun but no responsibility to another and by this remove the real reason for fellowship, the showing of God's Love to each other.

I would encourage people to follow 'super Christians' and their ministry as well as church hop from one church to another to find a fellowship that will suit them or to follow the latest fads in churches. I would create an instability in their life so they really were never in a position to be disciplined. But then I managed to get that concept out of the church years ago.

I would replace discipling with lecture, courses, programs and sermons so that few if any Christians in a church would mature as much as they were able to or do the work of Jesus to their fullest capacity.

I would emphasize 'horizontal' fellowship (with each other) above the 'vertical' (with Jesus) in order to make the former, the coming together of the saints, to be empty, powerless, meaningless and more important than spending time with Jesus.

Miscellaneous

I would hijack revivals emphasising emotional experience, signs and spirituality, hiding the need for repentance and increased intimacy with Jesus.

I would hide the principles of Matt 6:33 so people would not realise my provision for the ministry I have given them and make it appear necessary for them to raise the finances to do it so money is taken from things I needed it for elsewhere.

I would make ministry activities like evangelism, missionaries etc., more important than meeting the needs of the widow, the fatherless, the poor and needy around them so that my work there would not be done.

I would make the church irrelevant to the community around it so that no one would bother seeing what happens there.

Promotion

I would ensure promotion would be awarded according to a person's learning or natural accomplishments emphasizing ability and knowledge rather than spiritual achievements or Christian maturity. I would train people to ignore the biblical way of promotion and of God's way of preparing His servants in favour of man's requirements for promotion. This would ensure a wrong spirit behind whatever came out of their ministry, tainting the Gospel's pure message.

This would also ensure wrong people filled ministry positions and not the ones God wanted too so that ministry would be ineffective.

Service

I would have the power and activity of the Christian faith appear to be only for the minister and leaders (and those who are appropriately trained) so that the followers would not go out and do what they should, believing they were not suitably trained to do so. I would promote a belief that you could study or learn how to get spiritual power and ministry gifts and by this hide the true way of being empowered by God (faithfulness and obedience endurance in trials.)

I would create a smoke screen of church training programs for the members so the people would be trained inadequately and do some work but really not do the work of Jesus as He wanted it done. People would have some qualification from these training courses but really still have no real say in the church management and direction. They would still only 'evangelize' as directed by the ministers believing it was necessary for the minister or specially trained people to lead any evangelistic attempt.

By keeping the hierarchical structure in the denomination and church, of which qualifications are a part of, I would keep the church in the same state it was when in this structure was necessary when most members were uneducated and education was through the places of learning that were church controlled. Thus the modern educated church member would be frustrated and find church a place where their needs for expression, as a Christian, were not met.

I would make people feel too inferior to serve Jesus and make others serve out of their fears, inadequacies and need for self-esteem so that service was out of a need to feel adequate and self-esteem rather than love for me and God's people.

I would hide the deliverance and healing Jesus offers so people would never be healed of their fears, inadequacies and need for self esteem and people would never serve Him as they should because they ministered to meet their emotional needs and/or feel acceptable to God and not out of love for the person being ministered too.

I would ensure no Christian knew their authority over me so they could defeat me as they should.

Anyone questioning the leadership of the church would be called rebellious or immature and disciplined by the eldership under the guidance of the minister. Any woman questioning the leadership of the church would be called a Jezebel, controlled by a Jezebel spirit (whether it was true or not). This condemnation would also apply to women who were erroneously made to submit spiritually to their husbands but who would not.

If people were sufficiently trained to question anything of the leadership I would have the leaders pay lip service to what they said but would have the leaders so blinded they would ignore these people calling them deceived and then do what I wanted the leadership to do anyway. By this I would stop any change or repentance in the leadership I had set up.

The culture I had set up in a church of never doubting the qualified leadership would minimise questioning of the leadership so this should not happen to often.

Women and Headship

I would make women to be perceived as spiritually inferior, requiring the spiritual headship of a man and by this replace Jesus as their spiritual head and hide the true headship which is only domestic. By this I would stop women reaching their potential and doing what Jesus really wanted them to do. I would use this wrong headship imposed on them to drive women from their husbands and destroy marriages because of the way the women were made to feel by the many men who imposed this headship incorrectly on them. By this I would stop or limit women's roles in ministry and by this remove 50% of the people against me.

I would destroy the family through this and the resentment most women felt at this perceived forced submission. I would hide the submission as being really to Jesus and not the husband spiritually so that they obeyed their husbands and not Jesus and resent it. By this I would destroy families or end up having Jezebel run the family. If Jezebel did not control the wife I would have continual discord between parents so the family would be in constant discord being too busy defending themselves to show love and end up divorcing or living in miserable marriages.

By breaking up families I would remove God's basic unit of worship and the foundation of true fellowship and God's main training ground for children as well as making all family members too insecure to fight me as they would be too busy trying to cope with life and survive their situation let alone war against me.

Witnessing and evangelism

I would have churches evangelise by themselves without co-operating with other churches around them so their efforts would be fragmented and not very effective

I would have the church approach a professional who had been 'trained' do the evangelism so that the ordinary church goer would not consider doing it as they were not qualified to do it.

I would have evangelistic crusades but limited to one church so members could sit there and feel they were doing the work of Jesus and go home satisfied they had evangelised even if only as part of a church. By this I would hide the responsibility of everyone to be able to tell others why they are Christians and why it is necessary to be a Christian,

I would emphasize the differences between the different churches beliefs so each would evangelize people for their denomination and not for The Kingdom.

I would instil a 'fear of man' in people so that witnessing would be a terrifying experience and many would not do it because of this.

I would make people misunderstand what witnessing was so they would tell about Jesus but not tell the gospel of Jesus and The Kingdom and thus how to get salvation.

I would hide the truth that salvation is a relationship that needed to be worked at and people would be content to sit in a church and be comfortable not realising they needed to do more to keep their salvation. They would be told that once you invited Jesus in your heart it was not necessary to do anything else to preserve your salvation.

I would hide the importance of the Gospel of The Kingdom and the importance of understanding how the two kingdoms (God's and Satans) interacted in regard to salvation so only a part of The Gospel of The Kingdom (that only of Salvation)) would be preached.

Deliverance

Demons

I would make Christians believe demons cannot harm them once they follow Jesus so they are easy targets for my demons. I would also remove their knowledge of the delegated authority they have over my demons so that they would not pose a threat to me or them. It would be reasoned that demons cannot harm them so they do not need to know how to cast them out or fight them. After all, they say, "a Christian cannot have a demon or be harmed by them."

I would also make demons appear to be defeatible by will power or magic and even promote some demons as being beneficial, especially dragons. I would attack the mind of children through cartoons and movies. I would make alternate lifestyles and beliefs also acceptable such as witches and warlocks, and promote things of other religions that appear harmless but are dangerous such as meditation and yoga.

I would only need a few 'respectable and influential' people to do this - people other Christians look up to but who are really trained by reasonings I have given them, leading theologians and researchers who do not believe The Bible as they should because of pride in their knowledge, or those who do not have enough knowledge to discern correctly who can be made to follow scriptures incorrectly so I can manipulate their reasoning as I need to and through them hide the danger I and my demons pose to them.

Authority

I would remove the understanding of what properly exercised authority is.

Authority would be something studied for and more a management thing than a spiritual thing. It would mean academic qualifications and not my qualifications which are a result of spiritual maturity and tested sufferings done for My Glory!

I would make career paths in the denominations for people to strive for and make church postings rather spiritual Godliness become important for career promotion. The Godliness of a minister would be associated with the hierarchical standings and level of promotion in the denomination or the church they ministered to and certain postings would demand the person had been at certain churches of a certain level as well as achieved certain results in that church as well. This would mean that ability was stifled and management skills became important so that a minister who was a good manager but a terrible preacher could end up leading the denomination instead of someone who was mature and who would guide the denomination in a godly way.

Warfare

I would make warfare to be shouting and gestures and asserting control over demons but would hide what it really was, the proper exercising of delegated authority over the demons. People would not be correctly using the authority they had but would believe they had won a major victory and not realise my demons were laughing at them.

The few that knew what it was I would get thrown out or driven out of churches so that they were not accepted in a ministry and would even have their mental faculties questioned at times to imply they were deluded.

Christian life

Suffering

Trials and tribulations would be turned into a means of God's Judgment and punishment rather than His Loving guidance back to where we should have been and maturing of us through showing his Love and Grace to us as we walked through them. These then become something to be feared rather than a loving demonstration of parental guidance and maturing.

Difficult to live

I would promote the lie that the Christian life was difficult to live, as Jesus has commanded (be holy; be perfect etc.). So, in order to get around these commands, I would be very creative with the interpretation of the Biblical verses containing them in order to explain away these commands and make them easier to achieve.

I would make people despair of living the Christian life and even walk away from it believing they could ever live it. I would hide the fact of how easy to live it is when Jesus is your strength and not yourself as you try to live it in your own strength.

I would also turn it into ritual and legalism so that the freedom they have in Jesus was well hidden.

I would make the doubt God's Love, Control, Purposes and plans for them so they would think God had forgotten them, despair and even give up hope.

Communion

I would make communion a solemn, joyless occasion where the people remember the pain and suffering, ignoring the joy and rewards that followed after Jesus rose from the dead as well as all that resulted from this event and Calvary. Through this solemnness I would hide the fact that the sufferings for God always has a reward.

Attitudes

Holiness

The honour and respect that Christians should have with regard to the observance and care of Holy Things I would reduce to solemn ritual or legalism so that worship becomes a sterile formal exercise. I would encourage emotionalism in those that worshipped freely so that they tried to capture the experience and not the relationship with Jesus as they worshipped. The experience would become more important than the relationship with Jesus.

I would make complete holiness appear practically unattainable and hide what it actually was—a lifestyle of continual obedience to Jesus.

Worship

Praise and worship services would be perverted to mere emotional activities or solemn events and thus I would pervert the joyous spirit in these observances. The Holy Spirit would be blocked out by these emotions and the ability to hear Him also greatly reduced. The worshipper would also be skilfully diverted away from the most holy emotions thinking they had already attained them and would be taught that the emotional experiences they were having were the highest emotions of pure worship or similar.

I would exalt form over function. Worship would become mere words rather than a heart attitude resulting from the Lordship of their life and love for Jesus

I would make worship to mean singing or declaring God's praise and not a heart attitude so that worship became a time of singing enjoyable songs and not getting closer to Jesus.

I would make worship to mean singing to be specifically focusing on Jesus and not a lifestyle of continual obedience to Him so that their life was continual worship.

I would make the music and performances as similar as I could to that of my worldly music so that Christian music was no longer recognisable as being different to ordinary music and people could not tell whether it was Christian or Secular. Because of the similarity of Christian music and secular music I could incorporate into Christian music, without anyone knowing, that worshiped me.

I would have people sing about Jesus but not too Jesus so that there was no relational implications in the worship. I would have them sing about what they were going to do for Jesus in their own strength and not what Jesus had done in them.

Prayer

I would make prayer to be demonstrative rather than intimate.

I would blind them to the promises in Mat 6:33 by making prayer mean to ask God for what we need when He had promised to give it to us if we were wholeheartedly seeking the purposes of Him and His Kingdom.

I would delude people to believe they could claim promises from God that would increase their prosperity in direct violation of Mat 6:33 and that God would have to bless them if they gave to Him.

I would promote soulish prayers that appeared in themselves to be good but would be a form of control ('Lord make Him do that' or 'I would be good Lord if he did that') and in a sense pray as if you could control God and others through prayer.

Grace

I would pervert the purpose and the meaning of 'grace.'

I would hide God's Love and Grace and what they really were so people would not now see these in their fullness but only the crumbs of what God had done for them. By this I would make them less thankful and less appreciative of God's Love for them. This would discourage people and make them feel worthless or valueless to God as He did not seem to show them Love or Grace so that their faith was weak and they would not serve God as they could.

I would hide the thankfulness to God for all that happened to us and diminish the appreciation of Him so that people would not be grateful to Him for anything He has done for them.

Society

The Relevance of the Church to Society

I would have the church members be too spiritual to tarnish themselves with worldly things such as politics or social issues and replace their influences in these areas with my people.

If this did not work I would make them feel so guilty over what they were not doing for the poor and needy people in society that they would be unable to do anything for the feelings of guilt or inadequacy.

This would take the church away from the people who really needed it as well as allow me to make the laws of the land and determine social issues because the church was not helping the needy so the government had to do this. Then I could control society as I wanted to and make laws to reduce the influence of God in the land and control and influence of the church in the society I was creating

Education

I would promote Sunday school rather than teaching scripture in schools so that people did not know who Jesus was unless they attended church or Sunday school.

Stewardship

I would convince the church and its members they were owners and not stewards of the things they had and so they could do what they wanted with them without the need to consult God. So God would lose the use of these things and I would have the benefit of them because people do not ask God what to do with them. This means I could suggest what to do with them and use these things for my own purposes. They would not be used to cause people openly to sin but to side-track them and gradually lead them into sin.

Because possessions were thought by people to be their own to do with what they wanted, I was able to bring in the concept of profit on interest and saving (hoarding possessions and not sharing excess possessions with those who needed them) so people would not trust God for their provision. Wealth creation and profit would become more important than hearing God as people would not believe they needed to ask God what to do with things. Because of this we have the resulting financial structure today with the emphasis on wealth creation. This emphasis on wealth creation and preservation hid the promises and requirements of Mal 6:33.

By this structure I would tie up the money of God even further having Christians seek for treasure on earth ignoring their obtaining treasure in heaven as well as blinding them to their stewardship responsibility of things, that they needed to ask God what to do with His possessions which had been trusted to them.

Until this situation is remedied the church will always be poor spiritually and financially and not attack my wealth as it should.

Satan has won a major victory

He has stirred up people to fight for the life of a prisoner who is to be executed and lobby governments and do all they can to get this one person stopped being executed. Meanwhile billions face eternal spiritual death in hell and then the lake of fire and the church hardly blinks an eye.

He has millions dying of poverty and secular type charities are made the main instruments of meeting their needs so that their spiritual needs are unmet. There are those that see this in the body but most don't and ignore this need while enjoying their lifestyle of plenty. Once again Satan has made a master stroke.

Satan has manipulated society so that it requires both parents to work to achieve a 'normal' lifestyle and obtain what the world dictates is obligatory for a normal lifestyle. By this Christians spend money on things they do not need and Satan diverts it from the work of God.

Satan has set up a culture of beauty and fashion so billions is spent on things that The Bible says are not important: clothes, makeup, jewellery, hair styles etc. By this he diverts money from God and puts it into his treasury.

He blinds people to the need for stewardship of what God gives them and by this also blinds them to other forms of stewardship: of their body, the earth, of love and emotions, of the family God has given them, of the 'possessions they have'. Satan makes people believe they are owners and not stewards of the things of God so that God is not consulted as to what they are to do with these things. The church is a terrible offender laying up much treasure on earth and robbing many needy people of the help they should have had.

When the church gets its priorities right then it will teach what God wants it to teach. When people understand the deceptions of Satan they will no longer be snared by them. This is why it is important to be led personally by The Holy Spirit. If you do not know this leading then you better find out how to be led.

It is only as you are led by The Spirit in all you do that you can be a 'son of God' and do what God wants you to do.

Areas of Attack against The Kingdom

The challenge in defending The Kingdom these days

The information explosion means more information is around to learn from (both Godly and ungodly type of information).

The communication explosion means information is more quickly disseminated over larger areas than it was before.

Increased literacy levels means more people can read this information, understand it and put it into practice

The decline in Godliness of people as well as in their environment means more opportunity for ungodly people to express them self openly in immoral or ungodly ways as more and more people openly pursue immoral or ungodly issues in ways such as:

Laws made by people in authority allowing this ungodly, open expression

Law courts interpreting law in ungodly ways

More emphasis on self-expression allows more open expression in areas that were once taboo

Restriction on Godly discipline allows ungodly behaviour to flourish

The desire to be different means immoral or ungodly areas are explored for new ways of self-expression as traditional values have been comprehensively pursued previously and felt to be exhausted

More leaders openly espousing immoral things and ungodly things as a way of life (homosexual marriages and ministers in 'christian' churches)

New areas to battle in

New methods of communication has opened up new areas of battle

So called secret knowledge no longer the domain of secret societies

Media advances has made this knowledge public

Government now allows this openness and legislates to allow this through

Moral freedom of expression

Promoting the 'rights' of ungodly people

Reducing or removing penalties for immoral practices

Legislation allowing some ungodly or immoral practices

Education System

Teachers promote or must allow alternatives lifestyles and theories to be discussed

God has been removed from the classroom so as to not infringe upon the rights of non-believers, other faiths, cults or religions

The home is the last bastion where censorship has not yet reached

If it is ungodly you can turn it off at home or put it in the garbage bin

Government cannot legislate effectively to make people watch new age or immoral material in their home

Home schooling is the only way to objectively teach Godly morals and values as many Christian schools are a business and put money before Godliness.

Three main areas of communication Satan uses

Oral Communication (live debate, teaching or discussion between people)

Electronic communication (use of electronic media or medium)

Written Communication (written on recording materially in a non-electronic way such as paper, books, bill boards)

The battle is no longer just in the church

There is no longer a godly society to maintain standards outside the church

The church does not stand as a united front any more against ungodly legislation or media

Most churches do not know how to fight this threat anyway or there would not be a problem now

Liberal or apostate 'Christians' accept ungodly or immoral practices

Principles to use in fighting this battle

Jesus is greater than Satan and has defeated him

He has delegated to us this authority to defeat Satan

The Kingdom of God comes by force (in other words you must fight to maintain it or take territory from the enemy). Passivity achieves nothing and gives territory to the enemy

You do not cast demons out of a non-Christian as seven worse one take their place You bind (imprison them in the person) instead and punish them for anything they did while in the person.

Satan must go when told to as the authority of The Kingdom is greater than any authority he has.

Suggested approach to this new area of warfare

Warfare is now global as the methods of disseminating this ungodly information is global as are the groups promoting it so it is no longer limited as it was in the past to just one person or a small group in a localized area or nation

It requires a global approach by Christians who understand the battle and their authority and who fight against the evil in their country and in others.

These Christians do not need to know each other

The Holy Spirit is their unifier and guide in this warfare

They only need to be able to hear The Holy Spirit clearly and know the principles of battle

Any demon or their plans are a target

When attacked by demons attack them back

The demons personally attacking them

The demons whose plans are being carried out (Ep 6:12)

There is no time or distance in the spiritual so you can cast a demon to the abyss no matter where they are: earth, heaven or elsewhere.

People needed

People ready to replace the enemy in territory the enemy has been driven from and maintain the victory

People willing to battle for The Kingdom

People willing and able to train other people for the battle

People who seek the promotion of Jesus and His Kingdom

People who are led by The Holy Spirit in all things

People who know their role in this battle and area able to fulfil it

People who love Jesus sufficiently to pay whatever price is needed to battle for Him.

Examine yourself and determine what your role is. Not all are called to be leaders/teachers in this battle but all are called to take part in it, even if only when watching television or listening to radio. Be ready to fight wherever you are at the ungodly things Satan promotes in the media he controls and be ready to tell anyone who asks what Jesus means to you and how He can set them free.

Remember, when good people do little or nothing to oppose evil then it will flourish which implies the current ungodliness in western nations is the fault of the church not doing what it should have done or these nations would still be Godly nations.

(The next chapter entitles “How to attack Satan” has some ideas on how to fight this battle).

Remember to defeat Satan you need to control the media, education and government so you can legislate to undo Satan’s work and influence what people think with the truths of The Kingdom as well as bind and remove the demons behind the events in the media. The Holy Spirit will show you your role in this war if you are interested in fighting it for Jesus.

How to defeat Satan’s Attacks on you

Kingdom Deliverance Prayer

Satan cannot enter The Kingdom of God so anything given to be Lord of and thus part of His Kingdom Satan cannot touch without permission of Jesus. This is the basis of the following framework of five steps which The Holy Spirit showed me to use for fighting Satan and personal deliverance.

Give the sin, area(s) of moral weakness, circumstance(s), problem(s), event(s) or situation to Jesus to be lord of so that they are part of His Kingdom.

Forgive all who have offended you as well as yourself, repent of unforgiveness, bitterness, root of bitterness any wrong emotions or attitudes towards others or yourself (in you either known or unknown) as well as any sins you are bringing to Jesus. These need not be told to anyone as only Jesus needs to know them. This forgiving others ensures there are no hindrances to God hearing these steps.

In the Name of Jesus (The King of The Kingdom) command all that is not of The Kingdom in you to leave and go to the throne of Grace to be judged and dealt with along with all the consequences of these things.

In accordance with the Will of Jesus, in Jesus’ Name command healing and restoration of all the damage Satan did to you.

Ask Jesus to send The Holy Spirit to empower you in this, fill you, replacing all the demons that have left your soul or body as well as replacing all that is in you which is not of The Kingdom as you want nothing in you that is not of Jesus (His Kingdom!)

Whenever Satan attacks give the area of attack to Jesus using the five steps. You can also dedicate things to Jesus to protect using steps 1,3 and 5 but I usually prefer to do all the five steps in case there is any deliverance I need in this area.

Whenever I get any partially incorrect or wrong thoughts, sensations, feelings or emotions, I command the demons behind them to leave and go to the Throne of Grace and be judged there.

Remember these steps are a framework and not a legalistic type rote magic formula. If your heart does not mean what you say Satan will laugh at your hypocrisy and God will not hear your.

How to Attack' Satan

I now give some guidelines on how to cause damage to Satan and his system and hinder his work of attacking The Kingdom of God.

Firstly, you need to believe Jesus is greater than Satan and that in the Name of Jesus, he and his demons can be bound and go to the throne of Judgment and be judged.

Secondly you need to know your delegated authority over Satan and not be afraid to use it in accordance within the guidelines of Jesus.

Satan cannot make you do anything you do not agree to do. So, the first line of defence is your rejecting what he offers. Give any noticeable weakness to Jesus, ignore any temptation, cast it out in Jesus' Name, and ask The Holy Spirit to replace it with His thoughts. If the weakness is still used by Satan to attack you, then treat the area as one that needs deliverance (The Five Steps).

This is how you will defend his counterattacks on you personally.

Remember that Jesus said The Kingdom comes by force. In other words, through attacking Satan and not by sitting in a church just talking about it.

Attacks on your family

Whenever Satan attacks you or your family command the demons to go to the throne of Grace and be judged.

Remember also Satan will attack in such a way that will try and make you believe you or a family member are not delivered in an area. Just check with The Holy Spirit in case there is still problems to deal with in which case use 'The Five Steps' otherwise just cast him to the throne of Grace and be judged Jesus' Name.

To get you to do what he wants Satan has to usually suggests you do not have something when you really do have it. For example he will try and convince you that you are mad or insane when you are not or that you have lost your salvation when you have not. If you were he would not have to try and convince you that you were. So if Satan keeps placing in your mind that you are fearful, mad, or any other thing, you know that you are not or he would not have to try and convince you that you were what he is suggesting to you that you are.

Never argue, reason, assume anything or react to criticism or attacks on you but go to The Holy Spirit and ask what to do. Then you will be led by Him in all things as you fight for The kingdom and seek to serve The Kingdom. Satan has built up reactions and assumptions in you so that you will do things his way which is why it is important to go to The Holy Spirit in all things and not listen to self or your own reason. The five steps is used to deal with these in built assumptions and reactions.

When casting out or binding demons in the daily areas of your life (home, work, meetings, things you are stewards of, etc.). Remember demons have no right to attack so can be cast out regardless of what they are doing. Remember also to ask The Holy Spirit to take their place.

Remember also it is a daily battle which is why His mercies are renewed every morning as if in this time or season things are done daily. Perhaps this is why in Mat 6:33 we are only to look at each day at a time. (3:22,23 it states His mercies are renewed every day).

It is as if there is a reset button so that we need to pray, bind or cast out every day which is the reason daily prayers are daily prayers. Sometimes we can bind demons for longer periods but it appears to be at God's discretion.

Sometimes a demon is allowed to stay by The Lord and not go. This is because there is something the person needs to understand and the demon will go after the person understands what God wants them to know.

A new way to attack Satan

Recently I was shown this way to attack Satan

People say a demon has a legal right because a person has accepted what they have been offered by the demon. The Law does not condone a crime because the victim allowed the perpetrator to do it to them. It says a higher law is there that has been broken and judges them according to that law.

So it is with Satan and his demons. They have broken The Laws of The Kingdom of God and its Ruler, Jesus. Accordingly, they can be punished for this. So while the person accepts what the demon offers, the demon can be punished for breaking The Laws of God and sent to The Lake of Fire after the person repents and obeys God.

The fact a person accepts what the demon offers them does not give the demon a legal right to break the law of God and it is for this they are cast to The Lake of Fire. Remember to command in Jesus' Name the healing of person of all the damage the demons did to them as well as also to ask the Holy Spirit to fill them.

So if you ask a child to do something, if they rebel and will not do it then the casting out and punishing of demons can go on until the child finally obeys. The task must be within your authority and the guidelines of the Kingdom for this approach to be effective.

An example is as follows

You ask your eldest son to take out the garbage. You know he will not do this but that still does not stop you asking. When he says "No!" You command the following:

In Jesus Name I command that as long as my son does not take out the garbage every demon stopping him doing this is to be whipped by the angels until my son obeys. When my son finally takes out the garbage, then I command in Jesus' Name that the demons behind his rebellion are to go to the throne of Judgment and be judged.

While the son does not take out the garbage every demon stopping him doing this will be whipped and when your son obeys they will go to the throne of Grace and be judged. Satan starts the rebellion and we use it against him.

This can be applied to any situation where you have authority to ask someone to do something: daughter asked to sweep or make her bed, son asked to mow the lawn, etc. You are only limited by your ability to hear The Holy Spirit as He shows you areas to use this in.

To torment the demons ask the child to do something you know he will not do and command a punishment on the demons until he does it. All is fair in this war against Satan.

This can also be applied to events and other activities led by The Spirit. Against neighbours demons are using to make noise and stop you doing Bible study or prayer for example or even sleeping at night.

This attack on Satan is very affective as a friend and I have seen the demons trying to get the person to stop the wrong action or attitude and stop themselves being punished.

Note: This approach is very effective when you set a task you are authorized to set, which you know will never be done by the person you asked to do the task.

Halloween and other Satanic events such as witches conferences or new age conferences

These can be attacked as follows while the event is on Praise Jesus for His victory over Satan and that He is lord of all so that Satan must bow to His Will.

Cast out geographically in that area every 30 mn for the duration of the event or do it in a relay with others. Only requires one to cast out geographically.

You can also pray against the event as follows:

Its organisation

Forbid demons to help it in any way

Command them to go to the throne of Grace and be judged in Jesus

Name if they even think of helping the event in any way

Bind their power so they cant use the people in the event or work through them

Also ask The Father to send His angels to cause as much disruption as they can to the event.

Thank The Father Jesus and The Holy Spirit that these things have been done

Satan using people against you

People of the world are under Satan's authority and he can use them against you to delay you, hurt you, harass you or wear you out through being overly demanding or just using them to either waste time or aggravate you so you can't do the things God wants you to do. So pray as follows:

In Jesus Name I forbid any person from being used by Satan either directly or indirectly to attack me or my family in any way and I command any demon doing this to go to the throne of Grace and be judged along with those that are helping them or ordered them to attack me.

Satan affecting things you own

These need to be dedicated to Jesus and His Kingdom so pray this way:

Lord, I give you the (name the object e.g., house, car, television, computer, dog, washing machine etc) to be Lord of and I declare Satan you no longer have a right to be in or attached to or to use that (name the thing given) in any way so in Jesus' Name go to the throne of Grace and be judged.

I ask you holy spirit to replace them and fill this (house etc.) with your presence.

You can also give events and circumstances to Jesus using these prayers so the He is Lord of the situation or future event and Satan has to stay away from them.

If something has been dedicated to Jesus then tell Satan to leave them as follows:

Satan! This (insert object, item or animal) has been dedicated to Jesus so I command you to leave it in Jesus Name and to go to the Throne of Judgment and to stay there.

Demons where you are at work

You can deal with demons causing problems as work as follows:

In Jesus Name I forbid any demon from attacking me at work or using other people to attack me at work and in Jesus Name I command all the demons in the work area that are there now or have been there in the last 24 hours to go to the throne of Grace and be judged. In Jesus' Name I also forbid any demons from entering the work place.

Holy Spirit, please take their place and Father send your angles to be there as necessary and minister.

In Jesus' Name I command any demon attacking me at work to go to the abyss and stay heres the moment they start to attack me along with all other demons involved in any way in the attack.

Thank You

I have a friend who is a nurse working night shift and is going through divorce. She needed to pray the following every day she went to work:

When leaving for work she had to bind the demons and forbid them following her home and/or stirring up any trouble in the house between the children

She needed to bind the demons at work. When she did this the patients slept through the night otherwise they got up frequently and had to be put back to bed. She nursed dementia patients and seriously ill patients.

She needed to daily give her work situation to Jesus

She needed to forbid any demons from following her home

She thanked The Father, Jesus and The Holy Spirit.

She use to come home tired and had to bind the demons causing her tiredness to go in Jesus Name

She then gave her sleep to Jesus to protect it

In Meeting, Seminars, other confrontations with Satanic/evil teaching or purposes

Always remember it is a confrontation of kingdoms and kings when you see people preaching evil or compromise and debating for or against Jesus. This means it is spiritual warfare so the following is suggested whenever you see this confrontation.

If in the media and it is a past event then you can do nothing except attack the demons that were behind the event and minimise the influence of the activity.

If it is live then do the following:

In Jesus Name command every demon but not those in non-Christians to leave and go to the throne of Grace and be judged and forbid any demon replacing them and any that tries to replace them command in Jesus Name to go straight to the throne of Grace and be judged. Geographic casting out also annoys them and hinders their work there.

In Jesus Name bind the demon there inside or outside of anyone and forbid them from helping any person in any way or from blinding or hindering the understanding of any people there to the truths The Father, Jesus and/or The Holy Spirit want to tell them.

In Jesus Name forbid any demon from hindering in any way those that are standing for Jesus.

In Jesus' Name i forbid any demon influencing anyone watching this media event.

Ask The Father to send His Angels and The Holy Spirit to be sovereign so Jesus is Glorified and edified by what is said and The Kingdom also is advanced by what happens next.

Machines and equipment

Satan can stop machines and equipment working. God can also keep broken equipment working until the spare parts arrive to fix it.

I have known of a broken machine that worked for 6 months till the parts arrived to fix it

I have a friend whose car stopped for no reason. He felt a demon in the back seat and told it to go. The car started again.

I know of a machine that would not work properly as the operator had not asked forgiveness of another. When that was done the machine worked properly and faultlessly again.

Machines are easier for Satan to control than humans as they do not have free will and most are not given to Jesus to be Lord of so that they are easily attacked.

I believe we can cause machines used by Satan's people to break down in Jesus Name if it is being used against the things of God. We can also command machines to work again that he has stopped working

Family pets and livestock

Family pets and livestock as well as farm produce are also able to be attacked by Satan and used by him if they are not given to Jesus or under the stewardship of one who has Jesus as Lord and who covers daily in prayer all they are steward of. Satan will try and stir up animals and use them against you so you need to cast the demons out of them and ask The Holy Spirit to take the place of the demons that have left. They too have a soul as we do for demons to inhabit.

Insects and Wild animal

Satan can also control these and as they are under the authority of no one but are part of his world system they can be sent away and the demons controlling them to the throne of Grace and be judged.

Elemental Demons

These control fire, water, earth and wind which can be all use to attack you. I bind them whenever storms or other bad weather are around and forbid them causing any damage to property I am on or anything on it.

Scrambler demons

These seem to have the ability to make a person hear something different to what is actually said with the aim of causing dissension, fear or rejection of what the person said. Never react or assume but double check what a person says if you are not sure it sounded right and if there was a scammer demon deal with him.

Anything you are doing

Travelling, projects, picnics, barbecues etc. Bind the demons from causing trouble. Satan is a spoil sport so will try and cause problems so you stop him.

Ungodly things in the media

Anything ungodly you see, read or hear, attack the demons behind it. Remember the writers, editors and directors are only doing what demons are suggesting. Pray a prayer of command like the one below:

In Jesus name I command any demon who had any part in the writing, production or promotion of this (name the offending item) or was associate with it in any way to go to the throne of Judgment and be judged along with all that helped them or planned this (name the movie, book etc.). In Jesus Name I also forbid any demons from replacing them to continue in the mission of the ones sent to the Lake of Fire.

I find this material offensive and you have no right to confront me with it. Holy Spirit take their place and negate the damage they have done or have tried to do.

Thank You Father, Jesus, Holy Spirit

What to do about idols

In many countries idols are everywhere. Many have demons associated with them that promote worship of these idols. So what can a Christian do about them?

Paul never attacked the idolatry directly. Declaring Jesus instead and showing how superior He was to the idol. (See Ephesians and the dissertation in Acts 17). So apart from proclaiming Jesus, what can you do?

The demon is there because of the worship of the people so trying to cast the demon out is really futile as another will gladly take its place. I suggest you forbid them from leaving the object they are in and binding them so they cannot use it for anything either with it or through it. This leaves them trapped and not able to use it.

Remember to check with The Holy Spirit as to what He wants you to do about the idol and the demon in it in case you are to leave it alone. After all, He is the coordinator of God's Army and the guide as to what and where you are to attack or defend.

Dealing with Harry Potter and The New Age

I watched "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire". I turned it off halfway through but ended up watching it all as I was told to by The Holy Spirit. Why did I watch it you ask? There were two reasons:

The Lord showed me how wonderfully deceptive and inviting is the way Satan has used the media to promote the new age

Jesus asked me? "How do you deal with Harry Potter?" and by association He said later "and the New Age teachings".

Unless you know what the devil is doing you will not know how or what to fight.

I pondered this problem as it seemed insurmountable to defeat the demons behind Harry Potter and all the new age shows on TV and movies (cartoon or drama). Then The Lord reminded me that these people believe they control the demons and do not realise the demons control or use them for their own demonic purposes. All the power of the new age comes from demons so if you bind the demons and stop them working the people have no power of any kind. This is the truth that could set them free. After all Christianity is a power encounter when it is lived correctly.

The church, while teaching that Harry Potter and the new age is wrong does not really show any reason usually for these new age people to leave the new age and follow it. Why should they listen to the church when it offers no real alternative to their teachings or power or control of the supernatural they appear to have.

Remember that Satan takes the teachings of Jesus, adds some mystery and supernatural perverts it to suits his purposes then regurgitates it out as something attractive and powerful (the new age) and while the church does little to show where the new age is wrong it will continue to lose the fight for these deceived people.

I was shown a two pronged attack by Jesus:

With live shows promoting the new age, attack and bind the demons behind the people teaching, selling or demonstrating new age beliefs and/or power

With movies, TV dramas, prerecorded media events or shows, cartoons, books, magazines, CD's, DVD's or similar media, bind the demons behind the people who wrote the scripts, acted them out or had another role to play in the production of the movie, TV drama or show, cartoon, book, magazine, CD, DVD or similar media as well as any demons that go out with these things and promote them to the viewers.

So a command like this should be said:

Satan, you have forced on me without my consent things that are ungodly and that I do not want. In Jesus Name I bind every demon guiding or helping any person involved in any way with this show and forbid you from ever influencing or using the person or any other person for your purposes again. If you are not in a person and had anything to do with this entertainment I command you in Jesus Name to go to the throne of Grace and be judged along with those who planned or helped in this.

Do this with every wrong and ungodly show on TV, film, book, writing or similar.

What is also needed

You also need to show that all the magic in Harry Potter is really special effects, that magic does not really exist or it would have been used instead of special effects.

This means wizards or witches really have no power but it is demons doing the so called magic..

This is the only way to show that Harry Potter is an imaginary story and all the magic in it, is really imaginary and illusion.

How to fight Evolution

Evolution is promoted by demons so we need to hinder their work of promoting evolution to the world and hiding the truths of The Bible from people as well as the science that show evolution is false. You need to show the truths of The Bible and science to those who have been seduced by evolution. It is a spiritual battle worked out in the physical and in the minds of those who believe for or against evolution. Evolution and Christianity are based on faith in a person's beliefs and perspective: either God or Man's viewpoint of history.

The demons of evolution and false faith need to be bound in Jesus Name along with the demons hiding the truths of God from people as well as the scientific truths necessary to free people from evolutionary beliefs.

There is much evidence evolution is incorrect but this will not sway people who believe in it as it is a faith thing really and not an empirical thing or the evidence for a young earth would have shown the time frame of evolution is impossible to all who saw it. But facts are not important to evolutionists as it is a faith thing so even scientific evidence will not make them change their beliefs as it also may mean they need to believe in a personal God they are accountable too and many evolutionists do not want to do that.

Accordingly, the battle against evolution and for truth needs to be fought on the spiritual level by binding the demons promoting it and stopping people hearing and understanding the truths of God as well as on a scientific level through showing the evidence that shows evolution is impossible.

The Holy Spirit will show you what to pray if you are interested in this battle for the truths of The Bible and against the errors Satan has promoted to remove creation (and Genesis) and God from the knowledge of people.

People who believe in evolution cannot believe The Bible as it is in error according to them so they cannot rely on it for salvation as they do not know what other parts of the Bible are in error. An evolutionist cannot believe in the God of The Bible because their God cannot create things as the God of The Bible does. The moment you qualify the abilities of God as represented in The Bible you serve another god of far lesser power than that of The Bible (by default a god Satan has given you to believe in).

Confusion

Psa 35:4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to that devise my hurt.

You can call confusion on the enemy's plans as well as prevent them. Just command confusion on the demons in Jesus Name and nominate the area you want confused as well as forbidding demons to attack the plans you nominate.

In Jesus' Name I command confusion on the enemy and their plans against us and command them to go to the throne of Judgment and be judged in Jesus' Name along with all that helped them or planned or encouraged them in these attacks. Thank you Father, Holy Spirit Lord Jesus.

Daily Prayers

Each morning as you wake up Greet The Father, Jesus and The Holy Spirit for a good nights sleep as well as what they will do for you each day.

Give it to them to be in control of and ask them to help you glorify them in all you do.

When you go to bed thank them for what they did for you that day.

Give your sleep to them and say 'good night' to each of them

Note:

Sin should not need to be dealt with here as it should be dealt with as it arises during the day but if you are reminded of something then deal with it before you go to sleep. Spouses should ensure there is nothing wrong between them before they go to sleep or have sex.

In Conclusion

In conclusion I remind you that the armour of a Christian has no protection at the rear so that you must always face the enemy and attack them or hold ground against them. When they attack you attack them back and command as follows:

In Jesus' name I command any demon that attacks me or is thinking of attacking me or (insert name of people, things or projects etc.) in Jesus' Name to go to the throne of Judgment and be judged the moment you attack me or think of attacking me along with all other demons involved in any way even if they only encourage you to attack me (or other person, thing etc.).

Epilogue

Satan is a defeated foe and the sooner people realise this and their delegated authority over him the sooner they can do the work of Jesus as He wants them to do it.

Learn to hear The Holy Spirit as He will lead and guide you to avoid the traps Satan sets for you. Make certain Jesus is Lord of all your life so that you are protected by Him from Satan.

As you reject the things of Satan and embrace the things of Jesus, Satan will have less to tempt you with and perhaps here lies the true victory over Satan, the living of such a holy life through constant obedience to Jesus that Satan can find nothing in you to attack.

It is war so fight or go under.
